

Exploring the culture(s) of medicine through comics

Savita RANI, MD

University of Saskatchewan (CA)

Shelley WALL

University of Toronto (CA)

Online Workshops March 15th, from 5:30 to 7:30 pm CET

March 22th, from 5:30 to 7:30 pm CET

March 31th, from 4:00 to 6:00 pm CET

Maximum 15 people.

No comics or drawing experience needed

This sequence of co-creation workshops will use comics (“Graphic Medicine”) to explore current discourses and cultures of healthcare, to bring diverse perspectives into dialogue, and to articulate questions for further development. The outcome will be an anthology of comics exploring aspects of a specific problem node within the culture(s) of healthcare.

Savita Rani BScH, MD, MPH(c), Chief Resident, Public Health & Preventive Medicine Residency Program, Department of Community Health & Epidemiology, College of Medicine, University of Saskatchewan, Canada.

Shelley Wall MScBMC, PhD, Certified Medical Illustrator and Associate Professor, Biomedical Communications Graduate Program, Institute of Medical Sciences, Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto.