

Arts-based eco-social pedagogy in educational settings: How to help future generations shape a better world?

Taina de CARVALHO

Lahti Academy of liberal and fine arts (FI)

Online workshop, 30 mn      March 21th, from 5:30 to 6:00 pm CET

De Carvalho is a French-Finnish artist, art therapist, and educator. In 2012, she developed an arts-based eco-social pedagogy used in the primary school system of the Päijät-Häme region in Finland. She explores how this approach can foster a sense of connectedness in pupils with the web of life and nurture eco-social qualities to instil peaceful action.
